

Ailsa Brims - CV

---

Exhibitions

2016

University of Portsmouth MA Fine Art Degree Show

Black Swan Arts -1000 postcards

Portsmouth Festivities – Spice Island Art Trail

Portsmouth Festivities – Underwater exhibition at The Diving Museum

Interim MA Fine Art Show - Do not crush the daisy

Gosport Open Art Exhibition

University of Portsmouth Mail Art collection (touring exhibit)

Footsteps to the Square - Portsmouth Guildhall -(5 month exhibition, reach approximately 91,000)

2015

Footsteps to the Square (solo exhibition of 18 street photographs) - Portsmouth Guildhall

Democracy Street Exhibition, Westminster Hall, London

Surveillance exhibition Fareham

Fareham Arts Festival

Titchfield Open Art Exhibition

Fareham Open Art Exhibition

Projects

2016

MA Fine Art project on the subject of liminal spaces and mindfulness – end of year exhibition August 2016, Portsmouth Historic Dockyard.

Do not crush the daisy. A series of found signs (photography).

Gosport Bridges

2015

My world of pictures (www.peppermintsea.com/myworld) - using a website as medium for exhibiting a series.

Reflecting Gosport

The Art of Loneliness and grief - poetry and street photography in a book

Websites

www.peppermintsea.com

www.ailsabrims.com

www.reflecting-gosport.com

Previously....

In a previous life I worked as a business analyst, project manager and web designer. As a web designer I have always used digital art techniques to enhance my sites. My IT background gives me a unique viewpoint on the world, combined with the technical abilities to run websites and use digital media. In addition I am very interested in data analysis and how art can be used to inform.

Contact

hello@peppermintsea.com

www.facebook.com/ailsabrimsart